

CNC MACHINIST

STATUS: Non-Exempt

REPORTS TO: Machine Shop Supervisor

JOB SUMMARY

Understands how to read blueprints, calibrate, and operate lathes and milling machines to create products that meet quality standards. Strong attention to detail and technology oriented.

DUTIES & RESPONSIBILITIES

- Operates and maintains lathe and milling machines
- Ability to follow written instructions, diagrams, and blueprints
- Takes precise measurements using micrometers, calipers, gauges, and other measuring devices
- Monitors production, adjusting feed and other settings as necessary
- Ability to operate various types of material handling equipment (pallet jacks, standard forklifts)
- May be required to lift up to 50 pounds
- Preserve a safe and clean working environment
- Prolonged periods of standing and performing repetitive tasks
- Manual dexterity in order to assemble products or operate machines as directed

QUALIFICATIONS & SKILLS

- Work well in a team environment
- Dependable
- Detail-oriented and consistent
- Excellent interpersonal and communication skills
- Committed to company values and willing to contribute as a strong team member

EDUCATION & EXPERIENCE

- High school diploma, GED, or equivalent
- 1 year prior experience
- Familiar with Milltronics and Fanuc controllers